The popular lake resorts are from 800 to 2,000 feet above sea level. The soil is sandy and porous. Here is perfect immunity from hay fever. The roads are good, the drives enchanting. Newport Society to Revive Big Affairs On Extensive Scale

Summer Colony Planning Many Entertainments for the Warm Period—Polo Tournament Scheduled

NEWPORT, R. I., June 21.—While the Newport summer colony years ago may have had a social leader or leaders, there has been none in more recent years, and it is doubtful if there will ever again be what might be termed a social head of the Newport colony. In the last few years all the matrons of the summer colony have stood on an equal footing, so far as entertaining was concerned. Some may have entertained more extensively and more elaborately than others, but not to the extent that they might be called the leader.

There are many representative families in the Newport social colony, and many entertainments are being planned for the present season on a pre-war basis, but it is understood that these parties will be well divided.

Commodore and Mrs. Edwin D. Morgan, of New York, who were absent last summer, are to return to their summer home, Beacon Rock, this season. They intend to have with them during the summer Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Captain T. Archie Morgan, and Mrs. J. M. Ewart. Jasper Morgan and Captain Edwin D. Morgan, Jr.

Hutton Home Still Closed

Shamrock Cliff is not to be opened this summer by Mrs. G. M. Hutton, of Baltimore, as she and her family have decided to spend the season at Sausalito, Mass. Mrs. Hutton was also absent last season, and her summer home will be one of the few that are not open this year.

For some time there has been a report that Mrs. R. I. Gammell was to rent her estate, Southside, this season and spend the summer elsewhere. The place has never before been rented, but the house was opened a few weeks ago by Mrs. Gammell's own servants, and during the present week it was learned that it had been taken by Mrs. Roberts, of Philadelphia.

The summer homes of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Dolan, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Gerry, Milton Barker and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Widener have been opened during the week. Mrs. George L. Fives has arrived, and also to have with her during the season Mr. and Mrs. F. Bayard River.

Plan Polo Tournament

Mrs. James J. Brown, who has been engaged in war work for the last year, has arrived at her Bellevue Avenue home, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Shaw, 24, of Boston, who purchased the Sorehan estate on the cliffs a couple of summers ago, are expected before the end of the month.

Mr. Shaw is a well known polo player, and his friends in the social colony will have a chance, more than likely, of seeing him in action again this summer, for according to present plans there is to be a polo tournament at the Westchester Club field on Bateman's Point during August.

Sea Girl Is Summer Capital of New Jersey

Arrival of Governor Runyon Will Mark the Opening of Social and Military Fetes

SEA GIRL, June 21.—Governor and Mrs. William M. Runyon, of Philadelphia, will arrive not later than July 1. The Little White House has been made ready for their coming and their arrival will be the signal for the official opening of what promises to be a very notable season of activity here.

With the moving of the state headquarters here early in July, Sea Girl will be the home of the state administration for the next two months. Adjutant General Frederick Gilkison will be in command of Camp Runyon, as the state reservation will be named.

Governor Runyon will hold the week-end review of the militia units as features of the Governor's day celebrations.

Social activities have been resumed at the hotels and cottages. Cards, dances and other diversions are popular, while bathing, tennis, boating and fishing attract the outdoor enthusiasts. The Tremont and the Parker House are both enjoying an unusually successful early season.

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Rudd and family, of Brooklyn, are in their Sea Girl cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Ellison, of New York, have opened their attractive bungalow on the inlet.

Colonel Thomas D. Landon and family, of Bordentown, have returned to Sea Girl for the summer.

Miss Minnie Palmer, of Brooklyn, is in her first Avenue cottage.

W. A. Ramsey and family, of New York, are among the most recent arrivals in the colony.

At the Sea Girl hotels the following have registered: Tremont—Mrs. Frederick W. Hunter, Roland M. Dakin and Sergeant M. H. Savidge, of New York; Mrs. A. E. Frederick Reimers, of Brooklyn, and Captain and Mrs. Peter Stone, of Newark.

Parker House—Mrs. Oliver McKee, Miss Eleanor O'Connor, Dr. and Mrs. J. Barrett and Mrs. G. C. Livingston, of New York; Mrs. Henry A. Palmer, Miss Virginia Palmer and the Misses Maloney, of Washington.

CONVENTION SEASON AT SARATOGA OPENS; Cottagers Arrive

New Yorkers Are Early at the Spa This Year; Editors of State To Gather This Week for Conferences

SARATOGA SPRINGS, June 21.—Following the meeting here this week of mayors of the state, then the undertakers, conventions here will turn next week to health and newspapers. Tuesday about 1,000 health officers and public health nurses will arrive for a three days' conference. On Wednesday the Associated Dailies of the state will open for deliberation, followed by the State Press Association meeting, and then will come the Republican Editorial Association, which will round out the week.

The headquarters of the several conventions will be at the Grand Union Hotel, which opened to-day for the season. The house this summer is under the management of H. P. Burney, of New York City. The Hudson House, with W. B. Heston as manager, and the Adelphi, with J. J. Maguire as manager, opened this week for the season. The Lincoln bathhouse of the State Reservation will open Monday, and it is expected that the Washington, the new bathhouse being erected by the state, will be ready for patrons by July 20.

E. Clarence Jones, of New York, who adopted the Spa last season as his summer home and erected a palatial residence on North Broadway which he terms Broad View, will erect two more dwellings alongside his estate. The contracts, which have just been awarded, call for an expenditure of over $50,000.

One of the notable arrivals for the season is Countess de Montjoy, of Paris, who is here for the bath.

One of the first of the New Yorkers to arrive for the season and take possession of her cottage is Mrs. Samuel Adams Clark, who has been a regular visitor to the Spa for several years.
